Offended by Jesus

Jesus had the opposite problem to the one Paul laments in Corinthians. Paul faces rejection because he's a flawed person. Jesus is rejected because he's not flawed enough. How can the local kid be such a font of wisdom and grace? Where are the warts? Must be a scam, they reasoned. He looks too good.

The hometown folks fall victim to an old sin, and of the most unattractive: envy. The crowds in Nazareth were jealous that someone from their midst seemed to have a rare gift that put him beyond them. It's a familiar near-sightedness; they were staring right at Clark Kent and had no idea he was Superman, even though the difference was only a cape and a pair of glasses. You can only see Superman in Clark if you can get past the mental obstacle that says Clark can't possibly BE that special. Then it's obvious that he is.

In the same way, we can only see Christ in others when we drop the blinders of our envy and start looking for him. Out of the mouths of babes comes wisdom, and from the most unlikely sources, fountains of grace.

When has "the wrong person" turned out to be Jesus in your life?

Pray

Merciful God, when we experience moments of weakness and rejection in your name, help us recall not only your power and might but your compassion for your people. Grant us the courage and the faith to continue our fight against suffering, injustice, and hatred in our world. Amen.

Ponder

Jesus showed up in the wrong places for a saviour to be: in a manger, in Samaria, on the cross. Reflect on the "wrong" places in your community where Jesus is waiting to be revealed. Now I take limitations in stride, and with good cheer. I just let Christ take over!

Kids' Corner

My grace is sufficient for you ... (2 Corinthians 12: 9)

Before her basketball game, Kelly prayed for a win. But even though her team played a great game, they lost in overtime. At first, Kelly couldn't understand why God hadn't answered her prayer. Then Kelly's coach told them that one of the kids on the other team had a sister who was in hospital. The whole team was playing for her. When Kelly saw how happy everyone on the other team was, Kelly felt a joy deep inside her that she couldn't explain. She also felt sure that God had answered her prayer and gave her something much greater than a win. What do you think Kelly received?

God living among us, your grace is all I need. Amen. www.gpbs.com.au

Join us for Rosary after 5pm Mass this Saturday.

Ministry Rosters! We Need You!!

We invite parishioners to join our Mass ministries and other support ministries in the parish. In particular we currently need:

- ◆ Mass Coordinators (help priests by setting up for Mass) - we especially need volunteers for Saturday and Sunday 5pm Masses
- ◆ PowerPoint operators (all Masses but especially Saturday and Sunday 5pm)

Further information can be found here. If you would like to volunteer, please complete the form in the foyer and place it in the box for the Parish Office, or use this link and please sign up here!.

Or you can email officesupport@holyspiritgungahlin.org.au

If you have any questions about the roles please contact the parish office.

Full training is provided so do not need any prior knowledge.

Many thanks for supporting our parish community and generously sharing your time and talents through ministry.

St Francis Xavier Church:

The next monthly luncheon will be held on Sunday 21 July at The Lakes, Gungahlin at 12.00 o'clock. Everyone is welcome. For enquiries, or to book please contact Kate on 0415 787 880.

To celebrate and remember NAIDOC week, the Parish Social Justice Group has prepared a newsletter that will be available and handed out at all Masses this weekend. Please take a copy and have a read over a cuppa.

Good Shepherd Mini Vinnies Sleepout

Last Friday night (28 June) was the annual GS Mini Vinnies Sleepout. We were overwhelmed and inspired by the number of students who signed up to participate along with the amount of money that was raised for St Vincent de Paul through the event. Thank you to those fabulous 77 students who slept out as well as the 7 staff who braved the occasion and slept out. Our thanks also goes out to those staff members who did the evening shift or the breaky shift to ensure the event ran smoothly. We also had generous parents supporting us and helping us out during these shifts too.

Together we raised: $9927.35 with many individuals raising hundreds of dollars each and one individual raising $1000.00. Every dollar raised all contributed to us being able to make such a large donation and we are grateful to every single donation, no matter the size. Thank you for following Jesus' New Commandment to love one another and to treat your neighbour as yourself. You should be proud of being the Good Shepherds you have been called to be.

This invaluable event could not have gone ahead without each of you and the enormous amount of money raised and the profound difference it will make would not have been possible without you. Thank you for being remarkable individuals and for the difference you made to those in our community in most need!!!

Vinnies Pantry Donations

Dear parishioners—our pantry is getting low again. We need your help to fill the pantry with non-perishable grocery items to help our brothers and sisters in need. Thank you so much for always responding generously to our pantry call-out. Your continued support helps our Gungahlin Vinnies Conference to service our local families.

When it comes to donating to stock our pantry, please note that SIZE MATTERS... Our Vinnies team have put together a list to help us donate what will help the grocery recipients best:

- ◆ 500g Dolmio Pasta Sauce (or similar)
- ◆ 1kg Rice
- ◆ 1kg Weetbix
- ◆ 750g Cornflakes
- ◆ 250g Rolled Oats
- ◆ 200g Instant Coffee
- ◆ 50 bags Black Tea
- ◆ Sugar
- ◆ 420g Baked Beans
- ◆ 420g Spaghetti
- ◆ 425g Soup
- ◆ 420g Peas
- ◆ 420g Peas and Carrots
- ◆ 420g Corn Kernels

- ◆ 420g tomatoes
- ◆ 420g Legumes
- ◆ 420g Creamed Corn
- ◆ 420g Beetroot
- ◆ 425g Tuna
- ◆ 410g Tinned Fruit
- ◆ Hard Taco Shells
- ◆ Bottle of Pancake Mix
- ◆ Muesli Bars
- ◆ Instant Noodles
- ◆ 1 litre Long Life milk
- ◆ Jam and spreads
- ◆ Sweet and Savoury Biscuits

The above list is a guide, you may notice a few items when browsing the aisles that could work well for donation.

We want to ensure vulnerable families receive food that is nutritious and easy to access in a difficult situation. Therefore when purchasing pantry items please try to avoid the following:

- Junk food
- Items with packaging, which can be broken in transit
- Items that need can openers or special equipment (pop-top cans—whether for veggies, meat or fruit—are a plus)

Thank You!!

Feed the hungry, and help those in trouble. Then your light will shine out from the darkness, and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon.

Isaiah 58:10

Celebrate NAIDOC, a time to see, the beauty of First Nations, proud and free.
With open hearts and hands we meet, in unity, our spirits greet.
We dance and sing, we learn, we share, in stories told with love and care.
From Dreamtime lore to modern day, we honour in the olden way.
Through art and craft, we weave the past, in vibrant hues, these memories last.
With painted faces, hearts alight, we celebrate in full daylight.
In every step, respect we show, for cultures rich and histories flow.
NAIDOC week, a time to stand, together strong, across this land.
With pride and joy, we mark this week, in every voice, the future speaks.
Let's walk as one, hand in hand, in celebration, we understand

Lord, help us open our hearts and minds to learn about and respect our Indigenous people's cultures. Let us listen to their stories, appreciate their strength and celebrate their contributions. Guide us to walk together in peace and understanding, building a future of respect and unity. Amen."

Future Planning Update

Dear people of Holy Spirit Parish

You may be hearing some whispers about a few things relating to our church building, including renovations, improvement and a potential new building.

So, I wanted you to hear from me, that you can be assured that at this stage, they are just whispers. This is your parish and your community; and if anything major were to happen you WILL BE THE FIRST TO KNOW and FIRST TO BE INVITED TO HAVE YOUR SAY.

Just like anyone who comes to a new place, I too have come with ideas and thoughts about improvements and what could be good for our parish community. With that thought, I have been looking into the future; well into the future with an open mind.

Good Shepherd School, like a few other schools in Canberra is going through a Future Planning Audit, FPA. The FPA has identified that Good Shepherd needs an Early Learning Centre (ELC) to ensure its long term sustainability.

I met with the Director of Education, Ross Fox, and the new principal of Good Shepherd, Trazel Scott, during his visit to the school. A key discussion was to look at the possibility of building an Early Learning Centre (ELC). Two major areas of concern were where the ELC could be built onsite and the other was the replacement of the demountable building into new permanent classrooms.

This meeting led me to discuss with the Archbishop about his future plans for the Gungahlin area. The Archbishop indicated that he was guided by the signs of what is happening within the Parish and the schools. So, based on this, I have been doing some fact finding exercises for myself. Looking at different ideas and options that could potentially arise, including investigating potential sites where a new Church could be built.

As you are aware Gungahlin is growing rapidly, so we have to be on the front foot with our future planning. It is also very likely that a new catholic school will need to be built in the area within the next eight to nine years. So, in conclusion, as Parish Priest of this large area, to get my thoughts together, just for my information, I am looking at future options – which are many!

Please be assured, I will keep you informed and invite you for comments if and when we need to progress any of this further. God Bless

Fr Troy PP

Readings for 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B

Entrance Antiphon | Cf Psalm 47:10-11

Your merciful love, O God,
we have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
reaches the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with saving justice.

First Reading | Ezekiel 2:2-5

The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, 'Son of man, I am sending you up to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, "The Lord says this." Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them.'

Responsorial Psalm | Ps 122. R. v.2

(R.) Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

1. To you have I lifted up my eyes,
you who dwell in the heavens:
my eyes, like the eyes of slaves
on the hand of their lords. (R.)
2. Like the eyes of a servant
on the hand of his mistress, so our eyes are on the Lord our God
till he shows us his mercy. (R.)
3. Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
We are filled with contempt.
Indeed all too full is our soul
with the scorn of the rich,
with the proud man's disdain. (R.)

Second Reading | 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

Gospel Acclamation | See Luke 4:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

Gospel | Mark 6:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Communion Antiphon | Psalm 33:9

Taste and see that the Lord is good;
blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

LIVING AS AN ADULT CATHOLIC IN TODAY'S WORLD

Information Night Wednesday 10 July at 6.30 in the Parish Centre

In late 2023, the Canberra Catenians conducted an Archdiocesan survey to find out what adult Catholics needed to help them live out their faith in contemporary society. Among other things, our parishioners who responded told us that:

- ◆ An overwhelming majority were looking for closer connections within the Parish;
- ◆ Almost everyone wanted activities in which both men and women participated equally; and
- ◆ Most are looking for ways to achieve a better understanding of their faith and how to live it.

So, now is the time to put words into action. All parishioners are invited to an Information Night as above:

- ◆ To hear a detailed summary of the survey's findings; and
- ◆ To discuss and offer ideas on ways of responding to the survey's findings in our Parish.

Please come along to hear what others have to say and to contribute your own ideas.
