Breathing Peace Into Our Parish and Homes: Pentecost in Everyday Life (John 20:19 - 23)

Jesus entered, stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you." Then he showed them his hands and side. The disciples, seeing the Master with their own eyes, were exuberant. Jesus repeated his greeting, "Peace to you." Then he took a deep breath and breathed on them. "Receive the Holy Spirit," he said. (John 20:20 - 22)

The disciples are gathered behind locked doors, overwhelmed with fear and uncertainty, when the risen Jesus appears among them and says, "Peace be with you." He then breathes the Holy Spirit upon them. It is a moment of reassurance, renewal and mission. It is also the beginning of Pentecost.

That Gospel speaks powerfully into our world today. Many families and parish communities are carrying quiet worries about rising costs of living, mental health struggles, loneliness and the pace of modern life. People are searching for peace in a culture that often feels anxious, divided and constantly switched on. Into that reality, Jesus still speaks the same words: "Peace be with you."

Pentecost reminds us that the Holy Spirit is not distant or reserved for extraordinary moments. The Spirit moves through ordinary people and everyday acts of love. It is present in families who continue to choose patience and forgiveness, in parishioners who quietly support others, in volunteers who keep communities alive and in people who bring kindness into places that desperately need hope.

The Church is strongest when faith is lived, not just spoken about. Every conversation after Mass, every act of welcome, every meal shared with someone who feels isolated and every moment of compassion becomes part of the mission Christ entrusted to his followers. Pentecost is not only something we remember. It is something we are called to live .

The disciples were far from perfect. They were uncertain, fearful and unsure of what would come next. Yet Jesus still entrusted them with his mission and filled them with the Holy Spirit. That same Spirit continues to guide parish communities and families today, especially in moments when faith can feel challenging or disconnected from everyday life.

Perhaps Pentecost in our homes and parishes is found less in dramatic signs and more in the daily choice to bring peace, hope and encouragement to others. Through ordinary people living with faith and compassion, the Spirit of Christ continues to breathe life into our world.

Questions for Reflection

- Where is our family or parish community most being called to bring peace and hope right now?
- How can we become more aware of the Holy Spirit working through ordinary moments of daily life?
- What is one practical way we can make our parish a more welcoming and compassionate community?

Action Response

This week, be intentional about bringing peace to someone else. Reach out to a neighbour, listen with patience, reconnect with someone who feels isolated or offer encouragement to a person carrying heavy burdens. Pentecost reminds us that the Holy Spirit still works through simple acts of love and compassion every day .

BIBLE STUDY AND REFLECTION

Did you know that the Parish has several opportunities for ongoing Bible study and reflections? these are:
Monday evenings 7:30pm in the Parish Centre - please just turn up, no need to register.
Tuesday evenings online - please contact the Parish Office for more details.
Everyone is welcome and there is no need to have any prior knowledge about the scriptures. The format is to reflect and discuss the forthcoming Sunday Gospel in a small group setting. The sessions are facilitated by a fellow Parishioner and are more like a "watering hole" on the spiritual journey. The Parish is also currently putting together a more themed deeper reflection opportunity on Thursday evenings. Details will be forthcoming.

LAUDATO SI' WEEK 2026

CELEBRATING LAUDATO SI' WEEK 2026 concluding on PENTECOST SUNDAY
LAUDATO SI' WEEK 17th – 24th May is a global celebration where we remember Pope Francis urging us in his encyclical Laudato Si' to hear the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor and to humbly place ourselves in communion with our common home. Significantly, Pope Francis promulgated Laudato si' in 2015 on the Feast of Pentecost. As a Catholic Earthcare Parish we celebrate our part in the great progress the whole Church is making on its journey towards the seven Laudato Si' Goals set before us by Pope Francis to achieve ecological conversion.

Readings for The Pentecost Sunday Year A

Entrance Antiphon | Wisdom 1:7
The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world, and that which contains all things understands what is said, alleluia.

First Reading | Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11
A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.
Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

Responsorial Psalm | Ps 103:1. 24. 29-31. 34. R. v.30
(R.) Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

1. Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord God, how great you are, How many are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your riches. (R.)

2. You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. (R.)

3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever! May the Lord rejoice in his works! May my thoughts be pleasing to him. I find my joy in the Lord. (R.)

Second Reading | 1 Corinthians 12:3-7, 12-13
A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.
No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit.
There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose.
Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens, and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

Gospel Acclamation
Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

Gospel | John 20:19-23
A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.
In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.
'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'
After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven: for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Communion Antiphon | Acts of the Apostles 2:4,11
They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.

Thank you everyone for your continued financial support of our parish in continuing challenging times!

Income is above budget so far this year.

* Planned giving has been bolstered by the greater use of the EFTPOS machines.
* Votive candles also proving to be very successful.

Expenditure is below Budget however some expenses not incured in this quarter are anticipated to be met into the next quarter.

Overall this has resulted in a surplus for the March quarter.

We are trying to transition away from cash, where possible, to reduce the risks associated with handling and banking of cash, but the fact is cash will ALWAYS be welcome.

If you want more detailed information please contact Tony Rose (Finance Officer) at the Parish Office.

Samoan Mass at St Matthew's Church, Page

Everyone is invited to join Samoan Mass at St Matthew's Church, Page. The Mass commences at 12.30PM on the 4th Sunday of the Month.

May is the month of Our Lady, Mother of God.

Catholics throughout the world will be participating in devotional practices to reflect on her humility, fidelity and maternal love for all humanity. A simple way to participate is to say the Rosary daily during May. We can also reflect each day on Mary's life and virtues.

One way of doing this is to read the stories in Luke's Gospel that make up the five joyful mysteries of the Rosary: The Annunciation, Luke 1: 26 - 38; | The Visitation, Luke 1: 39 - 56; | The Nativity, Luke 2: 1 - 20; | The Presentation of the baby Jesus in the temple, Luke 2: 22 – 40; and The finding of the boy Jesus in the temple, Luke 2: 41 – 52.

May also includes the feast of Our Lady of Fatima, which is celebrated on 13 May, the anniversary of Our Lady's first appearance to the three shepherd children, Francisco, Jacinta and Lucy. Our Lady's chief message was one of prayer, repentance and sacrifice in atonement for the many sins that offend God. We can all play a part in this important work on behalf of Our Lady. A Message from the Legion of Mary
